

Public Health in Hillsboro: Cause of Death Investigation

Throughout history, large epidemics left many communities susceptible to disease and death. Using the information offered on these tombstones, try to analyze and guess what potential causes of death could have been in correlation with common causes of death at that time in history.

Gather your data into this sheet and then research the diseases as listed on the CDC website. Using the clues given from both sources, try to guess what could have been the likely causes of death. You will test your critical thinking skills as well as data analysis in gathering this information. Good Luck!
