

Background

- Streets in the downtown core are among the oldest in the City, some over 100 years old
- Pavement sections on these older roads are substandard for current traffic loading conditions and are failing structurally
- The City performs minimal maintenance (filling potholes) on failing roads until they can be rebuilt

